- The same costume must be worn for 2/3 events in the 3-part pageant.
- Novice contestants will perform Basic Strut in place of Super X Strut.
- No interview for novice pageant contestants.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- All current NBTA rules will prevail. Judges will officiate. Judges' decisions are final.
- Age ruling: Contestants' age as of 9/01/2024 will be their competition age.
- Reporting to lane: Contestants are responsible for reporting to their lanes on time. Any conflicts must be reported to the lane. Failure to do so will result in a 2.0 penalty. Once a lane is closed, it will not be reopened.
- Open Interview: Event will take place after pageant modeling. Required attire: costume or gown.
- Strut Off and Twirl Off will be held in all divisions. If there are less than 8 contestants in the Advanced Solo division age bracket, contestants will go straight to Twirl Off.
- Pictures: No flash photography. You may video your own child, student, team or group.
- Awards presentation: Awards will be in costume at the conclusion of the contest. All 2024 Pageant winners from MM of MD, will take a "walk of recognition" prior to awards.
- Open event awards: Open events will be posted after the equivalent 3-part or state event has been completed.
- Score sheets: All 3-part, Scholarship, and State Event score sheets (unless posted) will be distributed at the conclusion of the awards ceremony. A 15-minute discrepancy period will be allotted. Please check papers carefully and report any discrepancies to the contest director during that time.
- Only Board authorized personnel are to enter the tab room. No exceptions.
- Group Rate Hotel: Hilton Garden Inn/Owings Mills (4770 Owings Mills Blvd.) 410.654.0030 – ask for Miss Majorette of MD pricing.

Dorothy Hutchins' Memorial Scholarship Award
